ATHLETICS

Governor Throws Out First Pitch; Baseball Team in First Place

The baseball team (33-15, 27-9 in conference) opened the new John L. Harvey Field in a big way sweeping four games from Eastern Utah last weekend. Gov. Guinn threw out the first pitch. WNCC is now in first place in its first year in the Scenic West Athletic Conference with some huge games coming up this weekend.

The Wildcats will play their last four games of the regular season against second-place Southern Idaho starting Friday at 1 p.m. and Saturday at noon. All WNCC faculty, staff and students get in for free with college ID. Come support Wildcats baseball!
